

St. Josef in Bamberg-Gaustadt

In several phases of construction, the Catholic church St. Josef in Bamberg was renovated. We also had the privilege of contributing to the preservation and conservation of the choir-loft windows.

The choir-loft windows were fitted with an interior-ventilated exterior protective glazing and treated accordingly for conservation.

Particularly impressive: the round panes which you see here, towering above the ornament fields.

View of the choir loft in St. Josef

NII 3 AB in the condition after completion of work

NIII 3 AB in the condition after completion of work

SII 3 AB in the condition after completion of work

SIII 3 AB in the condition after completion of work

OI 3 AB in the condition after completion of work